Middle School Loses 5th Grades

In a spirited discussion of the pros and cons of retaining the fifth grades in their respective elementary schools where there are vacant classrooms as an alternative to a building program to alleviate the crowded classrooms at Middle School, the Carmel School Board voted last night to take the fifth grades out of Middle School.

Board members Rev. James Brock, who is running for reelection, and Richard Wilsdon voted against the proposal because they felt the children would be deprived of the better art, music, foreign language, physical education and shop programs at Middle School.

Brock also felt that every effort should be made to implement the 4-4-4 educational plan which the District has set up.

Wilsdon pleaded for time, saying that the expected increase in enrollment might not come.

Padres MTA League Champions

Carmel High School is the 1969 winner of the Mission Trail Athletic League basketball campaign, clinching the title with a narrow 64-57 victory over King City Tuesday night.

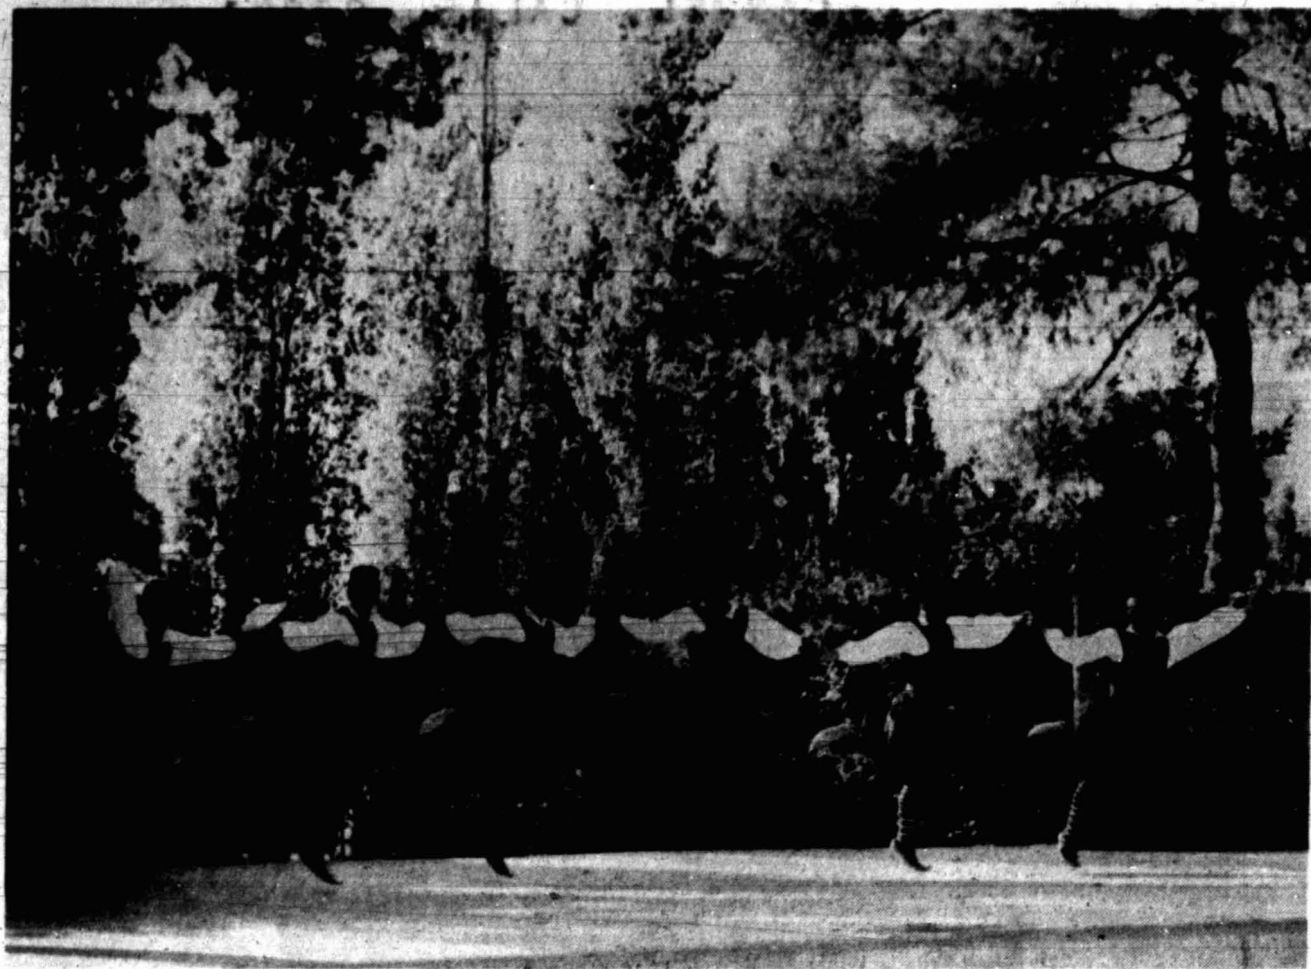

The Padres boast a record of 11 wins and no losses in this season's play, and the win over King City, their closest rival, put the championship on ice for 1969.

Carmel was lead by star center Bruce Winkler, who piled up 30 points in the varsity victory, with able assistance from Ross Smith, Steve Taylor, Chris Laiolo and Mark Spindler.

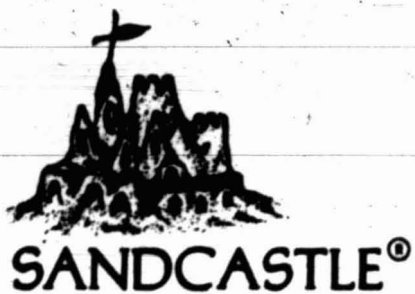

Carmel trailed 14-13 going into the second quarter, led 29-26 at halftime, trailed again 41-39 at the end of the third quarter, but spurted ahead to win in the fourth period.

However, all was not roses for Carmel.

The junior varsity dropped a tough one to King City, 58-32, and the freshmen lost to the Mustangs, 80-26.

TERPISCHOREANS—The Greek National Folk Dancers, a troupe of 30 men and women founded in Athens in 1956, will appear in a two-hour show of dancing, singing and music Saturday, Feb. 22, 8:30 p.m. in the Monterey Peninsula College gymnasium. Tickets will be available at the door.

City Urges Tighter Oil Lease Control

Although the Carmel City Council late last week joined its voice to other articulate local, county and state officials in urging stronger regulation of offshore oil leases, two measures still remain to plug legal loopholes big enough for a leaking oil rig that could bring a Santa Barbara catastrophe to the Monterey Peninsula area or other California beauty spots.

One is more stringent federal control beyond the three-mile coastal strip reserved to regulation by the State Lands Commission, this move implied by State Controller Houston I. Flournoy, statutory commission member and its current chairman, in pointing out that the Santa Barbara "leaker" is under federal lease.

The second action, pressed by the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, is for every concerned citizen to write every concerned state and national official asking that the state's Public Resources Code be amended, and that the Lands Commission hold a moratorium on offshore oil leases pending further study and passage of appropriate legislation.

Bills are currently being prepared in the offices of State Senator Donald L.

Grunsky and Assemblyman Alan G. Pattee to amend the code to widen the present sanctuary area, now covering part of the Monterey Peninsula's coast, to the shorelines of Monterey and Santa Cruz counties, and to prohibit the presently allowed exploration for gas and oil. Extraction already is forbidden.

(It is perhaps little known that the three-mile limit is not an arbitrary figure, but stems from an era when this was the firing range of a cannon.)

Citizens interested in insisting that Santa Barbara's leaking well be the last one off the California coast may write to:

State: All the following can be addressed State Capitol, Sacramento, CA 95814.

Governor Ronald Reagan, State Senator Donald L. Grunsky and Assemblyman Alan Pattee.

Federal: U. S. Senator George Murphy, 452 Old Senate Office Building; U. S. Senator Alan Cranston, Senate Office Building, and Congressman Burt L. Talcott, 1524 Longworth House Office Building, all in Washington, D.C. 20000.

'Seats for Sunset' Drive Underway

A drive to raise $40,000 to renovate and refurbish the theater in the Sunset Cultural Center and to purchase and install 714 new seats is now in progress.

Total cost of the project is $75,000 of which the Carmel City Council voted to budget $35,000.

The remaining money is being raised by the Carmel Cultural Commission through the current fund drive.

Anyone who wishes to contribute to aid in this project is welcome to do so. For every $50 donated, a seat will be dedicated to the donor with a metal plaque on the seat with the donor's name.

In further recognition of contributors, donors will be invited to a private preview opening of the theater when the work is finished and the new seats installed.

To date, 72 of the seats have been subscribed, and the Pine Cone will publish a continuing count as the fund drive progresses.

Anyone desiring further information about the fund drive, the refurbishing or the seat dedication may call Asthon A. Stanley, chairman of the theater restoration committee of the Cultural Commission at 624-2781, or Cole Weston, manager of Sunset Center at 624-3996.

Divorce Law Urged

State Senator Donald L. Grunsky has introduced a bill to reform California's divorce laws.

The "Family Law Act" seeks to reduce the high number of divorces by providing voluntary marriage counseling.

It seeks to eliminate fault grounds for divorce, for division of community property, award of support and award of children.

"If we can accomplish the elimination of the tragic consequences of a broken marriage, particularly to the children, brought about by court battles and bitterness, we will have achieved our major objective," said Grunsky.

Grunsky, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, first introduced the measure in 1967 following recommendations of the Governor's Commission on the Family. State Bar recommendations have been incorporated.

Fire Death Knell

Fire in the U. S. claims an average of one life every 43 minutes, the Insurance Information Institute reports. In 1967, 12,200 persons died by fire.

Brose Show At MPMA Until Apr. 1

The Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art will exhibit the paintings of Dr. Raymond E. Brose from Mar. 4 through Apr. 1.

This one-man show, semi-retrospective in content, will feature works from the Magie Realism, for which he was originally noted, through his current styles and techniques. Oils, watercolors, caseins and acrylics will be included in the exhibition.

Dr. Brose has received more than 50 awards including honors from the Honolulu Academy of Arts; Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.; Birmingham Museum of Art, Alabama; California State Fair and Exposition; Tour Gallery, Albuquerque; Ravinia Art Festival, Illinois; and the de Saisset Art Gallery, University of Santa Clara. His work has appeared in numerous national and regional group exhibitions, such as shows at Bradley University, Illinois; Albright Art Museum, Buffalo; Oakland Museum of Art; Mississippi State Coliseum; Institute of History and Art, Albany, N.Y.; San Francisco Museum of Art; Frye Museum of Art, Seattle; Crocker Art Museum, Sacramento; Salt Lake City Art Center; Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco; Orange State College; Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh; and the University of Washington.

The workshop Dr. Brose gave in Carmel in 1967 proved so popular that the Museum has invited him to return for a second series. This course of study has been scheduled for Easter Vacation, Mar. 31 through Apr. 3. Titled "Techniques in Oil Painting," this 4-day series will include lessons in landscape, still life, portrait and abstract painting.

The classes, to be held at Sunset Center from 9 - 12:30 each day, will offer instruction for beginning students through advanced. Enrollment is limited, and the registration deadline is Mar. 10. For further information, please call the museum, 624-2918.

The Monterey Peninsula Museum is located on Lincoln St., between Ocean and 7th, in Carmel and is open from 11 - 5 Mondays through Fridays, and from 2 - 5 on Saturdays.

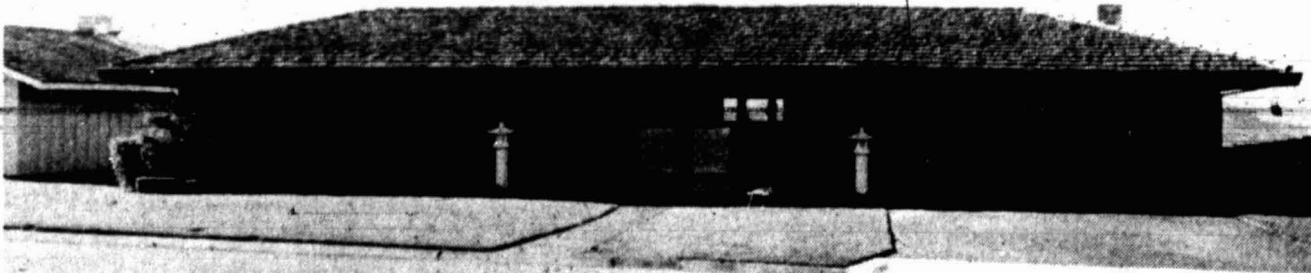

ABC News To KRML

Sam Salerno, owner of KRML Radio in Carmel has announced that KRML has become affiliated with the ABC Contemporary Radio Network.

Salerno, a 20-year veteran of broadcasting, has always felt that the Monterey Peninsula should have network affiliation in radio from a local source.

The ABC Contemporary Network includes many program features other than news. Exclusively on KRML Peninsula residents will be hearing Howard Cosell on sports, Billy Graham's "Hour of Decision," in-depth public affairs shows like "Perspective."

As to news coverage, according to Salerno, "the ABC Contemporary News is the modern approach to news reporting—clean, concise, and with the voices actually making the news."

DRAMATIC, SPECTACULAR!

Chrichton House Restaurant

The employees of the Chrichton House Restaurant chose the Hotel, Motel, Restaurant Employees and Bartenders' Union to represent them in an election conducted by the National Labor Relations Board on August 23, 1968. The result was 12 votes in favor of the union and 1 vote in favor of the employer.

Since that time, our representative has met with the employer time after time in an attempt to obtain a contract similar to that enjoyed by other restaurant employees. Each time we were rebuffed in our efforts and we are left with the only course open to us.

We must now voluntarily withhold our services, give up our wages, and ask you, the buying public, to support our drive for a meaningful contract.

ALL BOYS AND GIRLS—Are invited to hear a free concert, designed especially to appeal to them, by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra at Sunset Auditorium, Saturday morning, Feb. 15 at 10 o'clock. They will be guests of the Junior League. Jerry Henares, French horn player with the orchestra explains his instrument to (from left) Stacey White, Jim Irwin and Carolyn White.

Symphony Concert for Children at Sunset Saturday

Two free concerts, planned to appeal to boys and girls third through eighth grade, will be given at Sunset Auditorium by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, Saturday morning, Feb. 15.

Soloists will be 16-year-old Andrew Erlich, violinist, and 16-year-old Juanita Meserli, pianist. Both were winners in the Young Artists Audition conducted by the Junior League last November.

Haymo Taeuber, former conductor of the famous Vienna Boys Choir, will comment on each piece he conducts.

The concert for Carmel, Pebble Beach and Carmel Valley youngsters will begin at 10 a.m. Parents whose children live beyond walking distance of Sunset are urged to form car pools to transport children in their neighborhood to the concert.

Children under eight years of age are also invited, but must be accompanied by an adult.

Junior League members will serve as ushers at the Youth Concerts which they have sponsored for 14 years.

About five busloads from Pacific Grove will join Carmel district youngsters at 10 a.m. About ten busses will bring children from Monterey and Seaside for the 11:30 concert.

led to appearances all over the nation.

For the concert, Saturday evening, he will play sonatas by Pergolesi and Beethoven and the Chaconne in D minor by Bach.

A Hindemith sonata will precede a gay Mozart rondo followed by Stravinsky's Berceuse. The Polonaise Brillante in D Major by Wieniowski will complete the program.

A few tickets are still available at the Carmel Music Society's box office at Friar Tuck's Book Store, Mission near Six (624-7507).

Famous Young Korean Violinist to Play

Young Uck Kim, violinist, who at the age 22 has become a major figure in the music world, will be the featured soloist at the Saturday evening concert at Sunset Auditorium before the Carmel Music Society at 8:30 p.m.

Kim, who began to study piano at the age of four, switched to the violin two years later. He took first prize at the age of eight in a competition in Korea.

AFS Students Trade Places

"Exchange Week" for American Field Service brings Giovanni Mbweni of Uganda to Carmel High School and sends Grace Lim, our local Malaysian student to visit for a week on a 500 acre dairy ranch near Tulare, Calif.

Giovanni has a full week planned by his hosts, the Tor Spindler family of Carmel. Besides attending Carmel High School with Mark Spindler, he will engage in outside activities and learn how different Carmel is from his other American "home" in Stockton.

The Carmel AFS Chapter will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clemons where Giovanni will talk about his home in Uganda during the social hour.

Grace Lim who lives with the Jack Bruce family of Rancho Rio Vista, Carmel, is spending this week with the John R. Sullivan's who live in a dairy ranch outside Tulare.

These young people from foreign countries are having a wonderful experience in world understanding during their year here in the United States. By living in different surroundings during their stay here they understand even more of our culture.

Duo-Pianists Play For Santa Catalina

A brilliant and interesting piano recital by duo-pianists Dorothy Heer and Camille Olaeta, was given last week at Santa Catalina School for Girls, for the students, parents and friends of the school.

Program included the exciting "La Valse" by Ravel and other Spanish numbers by Granados and Infante, as well as Bach and Arensky.

Both Mrs. Olaeta and Miss Heer are well known musical artists on the Peninsula. Miss Heer teaches music at the school.

Nancy Roberts Marries Bob Meyer

The wedding of Nancy Lynn Roberts who was born in Carmel and Robert John Meyer, formerly of Carmel, took place last month at the Presbyterian Church at which Dr. George Hunter Hall officiated.

Nancy is the daughter of long time residents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Roberts.

Bob is the son of Capt. and Mrs. E. R. Meyer who used to live here while Bob went to Carmel High School and Monterey Peninsula College which Nancy attended also.

Mrs. Roberts designed and made Nancy's gown of brocade satin, and those of her attendants in yellow taffeta which they wore with little chapel caps. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis and roses, while her attendants carried yellow and white chrysanthemum nosegays.

The former Patricia Aldrich, now Mrs. Allan Hagar of San Diego, Nancy's cousin, served as her matron of honor. Two other cousins, Miss Marylyn Aldrich of Carmel and Miss Victoria Stone of Salinas were in her bridal party, as was Mrs. Robert (Jody) Bray of Hawaii.

Crichton Boyer of Fresno was best man and ushers included David Roberts of Palo Alto, Nancy's brother, and Thomas and Johnnie Aldrich of Carmel, her cousins.

Following the reception at the Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club, the couple took a skiing trip to Reno, Oregon and up to Washington and back.

The couple will live in Fresno where the groom is employed as an electronic technician.

Wedding Bells

Small Quiet Wedding on Saturday

Mrs. Arthur Granville Robinson and Nelson Taplin Newell, both of Carmel, recently surprised their many friends by announcing their approaching wedding on Saturday morning.

The Rev. James Brock will perform the eleven o'clock ceremony at St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church in Carmel Valley before family members and a few close friends.

Mrs. Robinson is perhaps better known as Elizabeth Clemons, the author of many children's books about the sea.

Mr. Nowell has lived here several years following his retirement from business in Stockton. He has been a member of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club for a long time and is also a member of the Pacheco Club.

Mrs. Charles B. Hazeltine of Carmel will attend Mrs. Robinson and Kenneth M. Davidson, who was Mr. Nowell's classmate at Stanford University, will serve as best man.

Junior bridesmaids will be Ann Goethals and Rebecca Jackson, both granddaughters of Mr. Nowell whose daughters, Mrs. George W. Goethals II of Watertown, Mass. and Mrs. Barbara Jackson of Sunnyvale, will be present.

Nathaniel Jackson will be junior attendant for his grandfather.

Following a small reception at the home of Mrs. Hazeltine the couple will leave for southern California.

Besag-McCulley Nuptials In Carmel

The wedding of Katherine Marie McCulley and Peter Lee Besag of Carmel was performed before a small group of friends and close relatives at the home of the Wilfred Ernst van Loben Sels on Saturday.

Dr. Karl Vit of the Unitarian Church performed the two o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Besag's brother, Wallace, of Pacific Grove gave his sister in marriage.

Dressed in a short white brocade dress, the bride carried pink roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert Buckley Kelly of Monterey, in blue, who carried yellow roses and baby's breath. Her little niece, Maria Kelly, dressed in pink and white, carrying pink roses and baby's breath, acted as her flower girl.

Mr. Jerome Wright, anthropology instructor at Monterey Peninsula College, served as best man.

The daughter of Mrs. Katherine Burrows McCulley of Pacific Grove, the new Mrs. Besag has been teaching in Marina. She is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley where she was a Phi Beta Kappa as was her new husband who is a mathematician.

Besag earned a master's degree at Harvard and a doctor's degree at the Faculte Des Sciences of the University of Paris.

The couple met when they worked together in two political campaigns, that of McCarthy, and of Alan Cranston.

They are both active in the newly formed California Liberal Coalition in which Dr. Besag serves on the statewide central committee.

They were dressed in yellow with wreaths of mixed spring flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of the same flowers.

Miss Anne Campion was maid of honor for her sister and her attendants included two other sisters, Miss Mary Campion and Mrs. Griffin, as well as her sister-in-law, Mrs. Michael Raggett.

They were dressed in yellow with wreaths of mixed spring flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of the same flowers.

Mike Raggett served as his younger brother's best man. Lt. Raggett and Mrs. Raggett had flown down

Tory Campion and Jon Raggett Marry

The wedding of Victoria Ames Campion and Jon Dana Raggett took place as planned on Saturday at St. Francis of Assisi Church in San Francisco, the Bishop Mark J. Hurley officiating at the four o'clock ceremony.

Tory is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Stuart Campion of San Francisco who have a vacation home in Pebble Beach.

Given in marriage by her father, Tory wore a candlelight peau de sole gown with chapel length train, first worn by her sister, Mrs. John E. (Buffy Campion) Griffin.

A wreath of fresh spring flowers held her elbow length candlelight veil and she carried a spray of mixed white spring flowers.

Miss Anne Campion was maid of honor for her sister and her attendants included two other sisters, Miss Mary Campion and Mrs. Griffin, as well as her sister-in-law, Mrs. Michael Raggett.

They were dressed in yellow with wreaths of mixed spring flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of the same flowers.

Mike Raggett served as his younger brother's best man. Lt. Raggett and Mrs. Raggett had flown down from Idaho Falls, Idaho where he is stationed.

Ushers included William Bradley of Carmel Valley, David Caselli and Philip Dirckson of Pebble Beach, and Mr. Griffin, Jr. of Modesto.

Following the reception at the San Francisco Golf Club, the young couple left for a week in Hawaii.

They will live in Princeton where Jon is working toward his doctorate in structural engineering at the university. Later they hope to spend a year or two in Rome where Jon wants to work for an architect.

Tory, the granddaughter of Mrs. Herbert V. Alward of Pebble Beach, is a graduate of the University of California where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She studied art in Florence, Italy last year.

Jon the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joseph Raggett of Pebble Beach, is a graduate of Carmel High School. He received his bachelor's degree from Princeton where he was a Phi Beta Kappa and his master's from Stanford.

Padres Destroy SLV, 85-54; To Tighten Grip On MTAL Title

by Hal Gann

It's Carmel All The Way in the MTAL, and Jason Harbert's Charges only need a split this week of the two games they play. Friday evening in Felton they rocketed over San Lorenzo Valley in a breather, 85-54.

However, this week, in a game occurring on Tuesday evening, too late for a report at press time, the Padres were to take the long trip to King City, a venture that may flay their clean slate in MTAL competition this year.

And on Friday, Feb. 14, Carmel's high-flying varsity basketball team must tangle with Holy Cross, a team that came within four points of upsetting the Padres at Cabrillo College in first round league competition, this game to be broadcast over KRSA-FM (100.7 Mc), starting with Junior Varsity Coverage at 7:15 p.m.

The Carmel home court will be just as easy for Holy Cross as it was for them at Cabrillo College, for the Padres have no home floor.

"We play each game at a time, and we have no breathers," commented Carmel's Crafty Coach. "But to have two clubs on the rebound gunning for us in one week is a special challenge."

Senior center Bruce Winkler, still taking bows for his record-shattering 42 points in one contest, tallied 27 against SLV, and he was helped by Junior Mark Spindler's 19 points and frequent interceptions.

Senior forward Chris Lalolo continued to take his share of defensive rebounds while registering some more fine assists, as he collected 10 points.

Jayvee Coach Dick, Charles finally settled on a three-man nucleus, rather than his two-platooning substitutions, to gain a 40-point edge over SLV, 70-39. Ward Gillette, at center, was hot with 20, while Jeff Canepa hit for 13 and Jim Conlan set up numerous scoring plays after timely interceptions.

The freshmen lost again, 42-50, to give San Lorenzo its only win for the evening.

It was the 10th straight victory against no defeats for the Carmel varsity, and Mark Spindler, the promising junior guard by picking up Carmel with key interceptions and garnishing 19 points, a high for him in the league campaign, as assured himself of a starting position against this week's foes.

PADRE PENNANT PARADE — First Round, Palma, 71-26; Pacific Grove, 62-41; SLV, 78-56; King City, 59-50; Gonzales, 71-52; Holy Cross, 70-66, and Hollister, 70-52.

Second Round, Palma, 65-59; Pacific Grove, 70-62, and SLV, 85-54, and thus to their three game lead over King City.

With the strategies imposed by Harbert and the desires of an all court basketball team, spearheaded by Winkler, the Padres could upset the Santa Cruz Cardinals, after they bide their time in winning the MTAL.

Spring Is Near — Little League Stirs

Plans for the approaching season of Little League Baseball in Carmel are rapidly taking shape. This will be League activity in Carmel.

Newly elected officers who are helping to plan this season are Paul Spencer, League president; Chuck Nystrom, vice president; Bill Sanford, player agent; Dick Tourangeau, legal advisor; Art Willert, vice president of the senior division; Roberta Prieto, secretary; George Booth, treasurer; Don Criley, vice president of the minor league; Mrs. Pat Jinishian, women's auxiliary president; Ewell Cole, chief umpire; Jason Harbert, safety officer; Bill McFall, publicity chairman; Jerry Artellan, equipment and supplies chairman; and Lee McGuckin, who is in charge of scheduling.

Others serving on the Board of Directors include Bill Askew, Jack Cate, Dick Challis, Bob Connell, Lou Erdle, Dr. Corvin Stine, Clyde Sturges, Jack Chalkley, Gene Vandervort, and Tom Artellan.

This year there will be a total of 18 teams competing; 4 in the Senior League, 6 in the Major League, and 8 in the Minors.

The dates the player sign-ups and League try-outs will be announced in the near future.

Rugby Tourney Set

The Monterey Peninsula Jaycees have announced that they once again will host the 11th annual Rugby Tournament.

The Tournament will be held at the Carmel Middle School, on March 22 and 23.

This event is the oldest rugby tournament in the United States and features the top 16 teams in the U.S.

The University of Stanford will return to defend its title against such teams as USC, UCLA, Oregon State, University of Washington, Peninsula Ramblers, and others.

Teams appearing in the past such as Notre Dame, Holy Cross and a Rugby team from the Australian Ship, Brisbane, have given the Monterey National Rugby Tournament a unique and special flavor.

The tournament is jointly sponsored by the Northern California Rugby Union and the Monterey Peninsula Jaycees. The proceeds are used for youth activities endorsed by the Monterey Jaycees

Skiers Alerted to Dangers of Buried Power Lines in Record Sierra Snows

Skiers, sled and snow buggy enthusiasts should be alert to hazards in the unusually deep snow of mountain areas where there are high voltage electric power lines. PG&E officials warn.

Snow in many mountain ski areas is so high that some high voltage lines are nearly touching it and in some cases may be partially buried by snow. New storms could raise the snow level and increase the peril this weekend, he said.

It could be fatal for a skier, sled or snow buggy operator to come into contact with a line. A safe distance is not less than 10 feet from the tip of the skis or swinging ski poles.

Snow buggy drivers should pay special heed to this alert because their recreation areas are not clearly defined. They should know the area of operation and stay within it, and above all keep away from power lines. Skiers should use only supervised ski runs.

PG&E reports that the company's measurements of precipitation, including snow, at 18 of its mountain precipitation monitoring stations show that most areas have received 85 per cent more than normal precipitation and some as much as 153 per cent above normal.

Christian Science Radio Program

"Communicating With the Younger Generation" is the title of Sunday morning's program over station KGO at 7:15, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45. It is part of the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You."

This program explains how turning to God can bring the ideas that both parents and young people need and open unsuspected channels of communication.

Town House Program

The four seasons of the State of Massachusetts will be the subject of a color slide program at The Carmel Foundation Town House on Wednesday, Feb. 19 at 2:30 p.m.

Miss Miriam Whittemore of Rockport, Massachusetts, will narrate and show the slides.

Tea will be served after the program and all interested persons are welcome.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"Carnival Feasting"

What Fasching is to Germany, Mardi Gras to New Orleans and Carnival to Latin America, Gasparilla Week is to Tampa, Florida. AND here on our Peninsula —

We have El Baile de Los Cascarones to celebrate feasting before fasting. The pre-Lenten cascarone ball was described in Walter Colton's diary in 1850.

In those times, these colorful events took place at the larger ranches. Now, this typically Monterey fiesta is held in various hotels. But the part that makes Carnival ours is the devoted work of members of the Monterey Civic Club to fill countless delicate empty eggshells with confetti.

Originally the egg shells were filled with California's gold dust. In colonial times, the don's custom was to crush these gold dust or confetti shells above the favorita's mantilla covered high tortoise shell comb. As the cascarones were perfumed, the señoritas adored this romantic gesture.

Shall we combine all of these places and give a resume of carnival feasting before fasting?

Let's start with our own contribution from Monterey-Before-Carmel. We can relive "those dancing all night" care-free moments of "alegre" by cooking up this authentically easy early-Monterey morning fortifier:

Cazuela de Ovas Duras Estilo Cascarones

This means in less musical sounds:

Fourteen hard cooked eggs; 3 T. oil; 1 onion, 1 garlic clove, 1 chili pepper; minced, sauteed; 2 cups tomato sauce; dash of oregano, thyme, dill, salt and pepper to taste; cheese; flour with enough water for smooth paste; butter, bread crumbs.

In buttered casserole put a layer of halved hard cooked eggs. Before this a salsa has been made with all the next items. Do this until layers are complete: eggs, sauce and now to top them off: Monterey shredded Jack Cheese, more crumbs, butter. Bake until golden and bubbling. Should serve 10?

From Germany's Fasching:

After-the-Ball-Supper

To revive after the gay costume ball is this typically hearty Germanic hot supper at home:

Smoked Salmon Hors d'Oeuvre

Sixteen slices white bread; grated cheese; 2 cans smoked salmon; butter and milk. Soak bread slices in milk a few moments. Place thin slices of smoked salmon on each slice of bread. Cover with other slices of bread. Sprinkle tops with grated cheese. Dot with butter and place under broiler or in oven until golden brown. These may be cut into smaller slices for hors d'oeuvres.

Split Pea Soup with Ham

One- and-a-half cups dried split peas (green or yellow); 1 cup diced ham; 1 cup minced onions; consomme to cover; wine; 1½ cups elbow macaroni; 1 cup canned tomato soup; 3 T. ketchup; salt and pepper to taste; grated fresh carrots; minced parsley.

Put washed beans with ham, onions with consomme made from boullion cubes and water) to cover. Add white dry wine as this boils gently for 2; hours. Add the elbow macaroni half an hour before serving with tomato soup and ketchup. Taste for salt and pepper. At serving have bowls of grated fresh carrots and minced parsley on hand to top off this satisfying soup.

Serves 6-8, depending on how foot-weary one is. Popular, so make a whole lot. This recipe is an adopted German-American recipe from the book of a German girl married to an American G.I. . . . pleasing to both.

Also from "The German-American Cookery" . . . a Bilingual Guide . . . by Brigitte Schermer Simms is this

Bismark Log

Four eggs, separated; ¼ t. cream of tartar; 1 cup sugar; 1 t. rum; 1 cup sifted flour; ¼ t. salt.

Beat egg whites until foamy, and cream of tartar and beat until stiff. Gradually add ½ cup water. Beat egg yolks until thick; add remaining ½ cup of sugar and rum. Fold egg mixture into egg whites. Sift flour with salt and fold into egg mixture. Pour into foil-lined 15x10x1 jelly roll pan. Bake in 375 F. oven for 20 minutes.

Take from oven and carefully remove sides of pan. Let cool for 30 minutes. Turn over on wire rack and cool.

Mardi Gras gives us the racy nuances of Louisiana. The following dish is reminiscent of the derring-do French buccaneers.

Jambalaya New Orleans

One lb. raw ham; 1 T. bacon fat; 1 cup peeled, chopped tomatoes; ½ lb. breakfast sausage meat — not links; ½ cup chopped onions; 1 mashed garlic clove; ½ pod red pepper, or 1 t. "pepperoni"; 1 T. flour; 1 lb. raw jumbo shrimp; 1 doz. oysters; 2 cups canned consomme; 2 T. chopped parsley; 1 cup uncooked rice; salt, pepper paprika, thyme.

Heat bacon fat in heavy deep skillet. Add onions, saute lightly; add flour and brown only until golden; add ham, cut into small cubes; the sausage meat, broken into bits; the shrimp and tomatoes.

Simmer, covered, for 30 min. Add garlic and red pepper, parsley, rice, con-

SPANISH FAIR—Gaily bedecked horses at the annual fair in Seville, Spain. This scene is from the Curtis Nagel production "Portraits of Spain" coming to Sunset Center tomorrow night.

Travel in Spain Next for Sunset

Well-known travel-adventure film producer, Curtis Nagel will appear in person at 8:15 p.m., Friday Feb. 21 in Sunset Auditorium to narrate his award winning 2-hour color film "Portraits of Spain."

The showing is part of the Explorers Club Explorerama series.

Nagel, visiting all of the major cities in Spain, also includes footage of the harvesting of sugar, the old coastal resorts of Dania, Peniscola and Sagundo, with its old Roman ruins.

Curtis Nagel has been producing travel - adventure films for many years and was one of the original developers of the Technicolor process. He has also produced films for 20th Century Fox and Paramount Studios, and one of his films won an Academy Award. He spent six months on location in Spain during the production of the film he will present in Carmel.

Reserved seat tickets are now available at Central Box Office in Carmel, phone 624-6739 and Abinante Music Store in Monterey, 372-5893. Tickets will also be on sale at Sunset Auditorium after 7:15 Friday evening.

Movie Review

Romeo and Juliet — Franco Zeffirelli's production starring Leonard Whiting, 17, as Romeo and Olivia Hussey, 16, as Juliet. A sensitive and poetic picture shot in northern Italy where the tragedy actually occurred.

The Lion In Winter — Peter O'Toole and Katherine Hepburn turn in outstanding performances in this drama of Henry II and his queen. Great dialogue and a great film.

Belle de Jour — Excellent exploration of a young wife's psychological problems. Outstanding characterizations by Catherine Deneuve and Genevieve Page.

The Subject Was Roses — Patricia Neal returns to the screen in this story of a soldier returning home after the war. Martin Sheen and Jack Albertson are also in the cast.

Hang 'Em High — Vengeance and justice with Clint Eastwood torn between the two in this Western with Pat Hingle and Ed Begley. Inger Stevens and Arlene Golonka round out the cast.

Danger: Diabolik — Master criminal Diabolik is an indestructible superman played by John Phillip Law, and his lady love is Marisa Mell in this adventure based on a comic strip.

Barbarella — Jane Fonda is well cast as a super-astronautess in the year 40,000 looking for a nut with a death ray. Perils and love-making beset her in her search.

A Challenge For Robin Hood — A well-mounted British version of the adventures of Robin and his merry men brings some variations to the old tales.

Therese and Isabelle — Story of a girl's school starring Essy Persson and Anna Gael. Produced in France, this is a sensitive film about the intimate lives of two girls.

Theatre Guide

Under The Yum Yum Tree — Fast moving comedy about a flighty girl, her accommodating boy friend, her worldly-wise aunt and a landlord who epitomizes the wolf fraternity. Great stuff.

Excellent Cast Selected For Circle Theatre's 'When We Are Married'

Director Charles Thomas has assembled a talented group of actors and actresses for the Community Theater's next production, "When We Are Married," J. B. Priestley's farce comedy about marital mix-ups.

The opening performance has appropriately been set for Valentine's Day, Feb. 14.

Emily Ford Leonard will be playing Mrs. Northrop, the aggressive, but humorous housekeeper. Mrs. Leonard has played many roles with the Circle Star Theatre in San Carlos, and last fall with the Community Theatre brought the house down every performance in the role of "Sadie" in "Ready When You Are, C.B."

Ed Shinbrot, in the role of Councillor Parker, is one of the most sought after character actors on the Peninsula. His exceptional talent ranges from a vicious killer in "The Desperate Hours" to the highly comic male nurse in "Harvey."

Mary Burton will portray Annie Parker, the quiet hopeful wife of the Councillor. Miss Burton has appeared at the California First Theatre, and most recently as Lorraine Sheldon in the Naval Post Graduate School production of "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

Donald J. Ross has the role of the wife-dominated Herbert Soppitt. Mr. Ross is a graduate of the Pasadena Playhouse, has appeared in films, and has several seasons of summer stock in New York to his credit.

Donna Howland will be the noisy Clara Soppitt, who keeps her husband tied to her apron strings. Donna has had leading roles in "Susan and God," "High Tor" and "Liliom."

Al Olinger has been cast as Alderman Helliwell. Mr. Olinger played Mayor Cargan in the Circle's presentation of "Seven Keys To Baldpate" last summer. For many years he was the producer-director for the California First Theatre.

Betty Hughes, in the role of the pompous Maria Helliwell, played Edna in "A Delicate Balance" last spring at the Circle. She has participated in many little theatre activities, from acting to costume design.

Saxon Rawlings plays Gerald Forbes, the young upstart organist from the village church. Saxon most recently appeared in the Studio's productions of "Carnival" and "Guys and Dolls."

Eliane Yates, who has had much experience in local little theatre as well as in Texas, has been cast as Nancy Holmes. Mrs. Yates just completed "Guys and Dolls" at the Studio.

Vern Peckover and Robert Rojas have been cast as two rather cheeky photographers. Mr. Peckover will be remembered for his wildly funny portrayal as the "Ghost" in "Seven Keys To Galdpate" last summer, and this is the first little theatre experience for Mr. Rojas.

Judy Kay Dawson will play Lottie, the vamp from the local pub. She has appeared in four shows at the First Theatre, and this is her first show with the Community Theatre.

Mike Williams, a teacher at Alisal High School, plays Rev. Mercer, and Evelyn Hughes as Ruby, makes her first appearance at the Circle. Miss Hughes is a student at Carmel High School.

"When We Are Married" will play Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30, and Sundays at 7:30 - for six weekends through Mar. 22.

Director Charles Thomas has Ramon Wilson as his assistant director, with Grace Houghton as stage manager and Ruth Jordan Allan as production assistant. Reservations to be made by calling 624-2669.

YUM YUM CAST—The four characters in "Under The Yum Yum Tree," the Lawrence Roman comedy now playing at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant, are from left, Hogan (Brian Jarman), the landlord who has consoled a succession of female tenants, Irene (Emma Jane Hansen), his most recent conquest, Robin (Pam Keller), newly arrived on the scene, and Dave (Rick Poe- whom Robin has talked into sharing the Telegraph Hill apartment on a platonic basis in order to test their compatibility before marriage. Reservations for Friday, Saturday and Sunday night performance may be made at 624-1661 or 624-2321.

Christian Science Bible Lesson

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise. . . . Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together before the Lord."

These verses are part of the Responsive Reading this Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

The subject of the Bible Lesson-Sermon is "Soul." The following is one of the selections to be read from the denomination textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "Experience should be the school of virtue, and human happiness should proceed from man's highest nature."

OBITUARY

Walter Sheldon Tower, 88, Carmel resident for the past 17 years, died February 12 at his home in Rancho Rio Vista.

Native of Massachusetts where he was a Harvard graduate, he received his Ph.D. at the University of Pennsylvania where he started his teaching career in commercial and political geography.

A stimulating and inspiring teacher who developed the potentialities of his students as thinkers and teachers, he was the author of several books in his field.

Mr. Tower is survived by his second wife, the former Edith Jones, three sons, and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Brother William

Religious Folk Music At All Saints'

All Saints' Church will present a program of "Guitars and Religious Folk Music" featuring Brother William of the Society of St. Francis on Friday evening, Feb. 21.

The Church will be the host to high school youth from all parishes on the Peninsula, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

While this program is designed primarily for those of high school age, the public is cordially invited to attend.

Brother William, a native of England, entered the Society of St. Francis in 1951 after brief careers in electrical engineering, ceramics and industry.

He subsequently spent 10 years in a special school for drop out boys, run by the Franciscans. It was these boys who persuaded Brother William to take up the guitar and write the kind of songs they could enjoy and understand.

Four years ago, Brother William migrated to Australia with four other friars to set up a new house in Brisbane. He is currently Novice Master of the growing Australian branch of the Society.

His interest in this type of music has made him something of a celebrity in Australia, and a darling of the mass media operators. Although he has no wish to be any sort of religious side-show, he is enjoying his success in a skeptical sort of way.

Brother William is still involved with problem children at the Queensland State re-mand home and with other social "lepers" whom the brothers try to help.

Serra Pilgrimage

A National Pilgrimage in honor of Father Junipero Serra, the Apostle of California, will leave New York on Oct. 5, via Iberia Air Lines, the airline of Spain, to commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the founding of the First Mission of Father Serra in 1769 at San Diego.

Their Excellencies, The Most Reverend Archbishop of San Francisco, the Bishops of Monterey, San Diego and Fresno, will sponsor the National Pilgrimage which will visit Mallorca, the birthplace of Father Serra. Visits will be made to Petra, the birthplace of Father Serra where a Con-celebrated Mass will take place in the Church where he was Baptized. Visits will also be made to the home of Father Serra and the Museum erected in his honor. The house wherein Father Serra was born is owned by the City and County of San Francisco.

Visits in Mallorca will be made to the famed cathedral, one of the four greatest in the world, the wonderful Spanish village and Palace of Congresses.

From Mallorca, the group will visit the Holy Land where the Priesthood was instituted by Christ and visits will be made to the principal shrines in and around Jerusalem. After eight days in the Holy Land, a two day visit will be made to Athens, then on to Rome, the Eternal City, where at the Vatican, a petition will be presented to the Holy Father for the Beatification of Father Serra.

ARTIST AND TEACHER—Girard Aken, noted Carmel seascape artist, the instructor for a class in beginning scenic painting sponsored by the Carmel Unified Adult School. The class meets Monday morning at 9:30 in Room 17 of the Sunset Center.

Aken Teaches Adult School Classes In Scenic Painting for Beginners

An adult class in basic scenic painting, sponsored by the Carmel Unified Adult School began Feb. 3 at the Sunset Cultural Center, and there are still a few vacancies for adults who wish to register.

The class meets once a week on Monday morning in Room 17 of Sunset, and runs from 9:30 to 12:30. Prospective students may register at the class meeting.

The course is conducted by Carmel artist Girard Aken, who says that beginning painting truly fills a need in the community, since many adults desire to paint as a hobby, but until now only advanced courses in this medium have been offered.

"The emphasis will be on painting outdoor scenes," Aken said, "although the course will be given indoors until basic techniques are learned."

Aken, who is the owner of the Girard Seascape Gallery on Ocean Ave., has a wide background in art, having studied with Gene Turner of the Art Academy of San Francisco and Baron J. Pangel Fredericks, into whose studio he was taken and received rigorous training in the discipline of realism.

He later attended the California School of Arts and Crafts, and under Jason Schoener, studied modern art for the first time.

Glenn Wessels was Aken's next teacher, and under the University of California art instructor he studied the entire gamut of non-objective art.

He came to the Carmel area first in 1948, where he painted Point Lobos and fell in love with the sea.

Aken moved to Carmel permanently in 1963 and opened the Girard Gallery, where he specializes in seascapes and clipper ships, and also paints still life and landscapes to accent his versatility and thorough training in all phases of art.

He has had numerous one-man shows throughout Northern California and has won many prizes for his oils and water colors.

IN THE END...

In the end,
There was Earth and it was with form and beauty,
And man dwelt upon the lands of the Earth, the meadows and trees, and he said,
"Let us build our dwellings in this place of beauty."
And he built cities and covered the Earth with concrete and steel, and the meadows were gone,
And man said, "It is good."
On the second day, man looked upon the waters of the Earth,
And man said, "Let us put our wastes in the waters that the dirt will be washed away," And man did.
And the waters became polluted and foul in their smell, And man said, "It is good."
On the third day, man looked upon the forests of the Earth and saw they were beautiful. And man said, "Let us cut the timber for our homes and grind the wood for our use."
And man did.
And the lands became barren and the trees were gone, And man said, "It is good."
On the fourth day man saw that animals were in abundance and ran in the fields and played in the sun. And man said, "Let us cage these animals for our amusement and kill them for our sport."
And man did. And there were no more animals on the face of the Earth. And man said, "It is good."
On the fifth day man breathed the air of the Earth. And man said,
"Let us dispose of our wastes into the air for the winds shall blow them away."
And the air became filled with the smoke and the fumes could not be blown away.
And the air became heavy with dust and choked and burned,
And man said, "It is good."
On the sixth day man saw himself and seeing the many languages and tongues, he feared and hated.
And man said, "Let us build great machines and destroy these lest they destroy us."
And man built great machines and the Earth was fired with the rage of great wars. And man said, "It is good."
On the seventh day man rested from his labors and the Earth was still, for man no longer dwelt upon the Earth.
And it was good.

Greek National Folk Dancers In Gala Performance At MPC Feb. 22

Monterey Peninsula College's handsome new gymnasium, which can be easily transformed into an auditorium accommodating a large audience, will be the setting Saturday, Feb. 22, at 8:30 p.m. for a gala performance by the touring Greek National Folk Dancers.

The two-hour show of dancing, singing and music will feature colorfully costumed regional Greek dances and traditional and modern Greek music by a group of 30 men and women. Each dance shows the life, features, customs and, in several instances, the very character of the people of a specific region.

The troupe was founded in Athens in 1956 by Nelly Dimoglou, a woman who "could not stand the fact that the really exciting folklore of Greece was gradually vanishing." At that time she had already visited every corner of the country, registering hundreds of original dances and songs.

Gathering a group of dancers together, she gave them incessant instruction. Then she brought them in contact with the people of the country. They performed for years in towns, the islands, the village squares. Often their performances ended in a "fiesta," with both audiences and performers dancing until morning.

Believing that "Greek cultural tradition is expressed as vividly in dance as in dramatic form," Mme. Dimoglou says that her dancers are now well trained and "prepared to show to the world the finest folklore."

Tickets for the Feb. 22 show are available now at the MPC Community Services Office in the administration building on campus or may be obtained by mail.

New Show at Carmel Art Association

By Louise Cook

The jury of the Carmel Art Association has chosen a stimulating variety of paintings to hang in the main gallery for the next month.

Edward Norton Ward's "San Gregorio Ranch" reveals a crisp rural scene of white barn, bare trees and lush green grass, backed by protecting mountains.

Elwood Graham's oil "View Study" and water color "Predator Study" present his familiar, irregular patches of bright color arranged in disciplined compositions.

"Folk Singer" by S. Yuan is a large, handsome study of a girl with guitar done in fluid lines and in the rich colors of Yuan's distinctive, muted palette.

Hot, orange light shimmers on the roof tops of Joe Feuerborn's harbor scene.

Helen Dooley minimizes detail with bold strokes and strong primary colors in a shore scene of a boy and girl, "A Day At The Beach".

Rip Mattson paints an unusual composition in oil. The subject of boats and pier disappear at the top edge while a mass of green water fills the lower three quarters of the canvas.

Royden Martin departs from his familiar ballet dancers and nudes to prove his versatility and paints a moving seascape.

In "Children at Play" Mable Landaker creates a charming composition of a carousel and children with balloons, full of innocence and bright colors.

John Cunningham's "Autumn, Point Lobos State Park" is an exciting and dynamic shore scenes of rocks and water done in luminous color, applied freely and with a master's hand.

The Beardsley room is featuring a one-man show by Donald Bloom. Mr. Bloom uses the many shadings and variations of a single color in each of his seascapes. The mood-invoking colors and sharp contrasts of light and shadow create the eerie feeling of life on another planet.

Coordinating Council Luncheon

Presidents of the arts organizations which belong to the Arts Coordinating Council of Monterey County will be honored at a noon luncheon on Wednesday, Feb. 19 at the Jolly Rogue Restaurant at Wharf No. 2 in Monterey.

The luncheon will serve as the February meeting of the Council and will provide an opportunity for the presidents of the various organizations to become acquainted with one another and the Council representatives and to ask questions or make comments and suggestions regarding Council activities.

The Coordinating Council membership now includes representatives of 25 organizations as well as seven supporting groups and a growing list of individuals with an interest in the arts activities of the area.

Parents Club to Hear Lyceum Talk

The Middle School Parent Faculty Club will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 8 p.m. in the School Library.

The program will feature a report on Lyceum activities presented by Mrs. Lewis L. Fenton. Lyceum, an organization interested in programs for gifted students, includes pupils from 3rd through 12th grades. Any interested parent in the community is cordially invited to attend.

American Field Service student, Miss Grace Lim, from Malaysia, a senior at Carmel High School, will be introduced.

Lyceum enrichment programs for gifted students of Middle School grade levels include Concepts of Computer Planning, Adventures in Probability and Statistics, Meteorology, Oceanology, Geology, Ornithology, Adventures in Research and Communications.

For lower grades, using talented sources in the Peninsula community, they include Folk Stories from around the World, and Painting.

At high school level, Lyceum provides exploratory courses in Engineering, Careers in Psychology, Famous Math Problems, Solved and Unsolved, Architecture, Law, Medicine, and a Humanities Retreat weekend session in May.

Carmel Travelers

(Mr. and Mrs. John G. Bannister of Orinda have had a summer vacation home in Carmel. They have been on a tour of South America, and their amusing letters will be carried periodically in the Pine Cone.)

The Incas are credited with many accomplishments, particularly their fine stonework, where each piece was fitted so closely that no mortar was necessary, and their walls have defied the centuries. However, soap and water must never have been a part of their civilization because the bare feet we saw have enough dirt on them to be a source of archeological exploration in themselves!

We were so excited to see llamas and alpacas in their native habitat that our group practically cornered the market on rugs, slippers, hats, etc., etc. One store we visited even had two pet alpacas on leashes, all bathed and trimmed just like they had come from the beauty shop! As I mentioned before, our hotel wasn't exactly the Ritz or even a Hilton, so when DeWitt Tichenor ordered bottled water for sanitary reasons, he was a little nonplussed when the waiter brought it to his room with his finger sticking in the top of the bottle to keep it from spilling!

The trip to Machu Picchu from Cuzco was made by rail car and took about 3 hours each way. We passed through breath-taking gorges, as we dropped from 12,000 feet to 6,000 feet.

On reaching the station at Machu Picchu, we took a small bus up the mountain to view one of the most awe-inspiring sights in South America, a mountain-top sanctuary used by the Inca rulers, and so well hidden that its existence was hardly dreamed of until its discovery in 1911 by Hiram Bingham, a Senator from Connecticut.

It is said that during the Spanish conquest, the Incas hid their women and children here. Many Inca mummies have been found in the area; they were buried in an embryo position, surrounded by the tools of their trade, because the Inca believed in a rebirth after death. We saw some of these "bundles" as they call them, open in the museum, and I must admit, I think our system is better!

As we left the ruins to descend by bus to the train station, it was necessary to make about 8 hairpin turns and drop almost 2,000 feet.

As we made the first turn, there was a little native boy about 10 years of age waving to us. We passed by, and he disappeared into the brush. As we came around the next bend, there he was waving again, and then disappearing. Immediately the men began to bet whether he would be at the next turn, and sure enough there he was. Each time we passed him, he dived into the bushes and slid down the mountain-side to the next switchback. He ran down the entire mountain-side waving to us each time we passed the turn.

Mayor Barney Laiolo

Laiolo, Branson KC Meeting Set for Feb. 18

Mayor Barney Laiolo of Carmel and Willard Branson, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors and a resident of Carmel Valley, will be the principal speakers at the annual Civic Affairs Night sponsored by the Billy Burke Chapter of the Knights of Columbus at Crespi Hall, Carmel Mission, on Tuesday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

Both Mayor Laiolo and Supervisor Branson will discuss the present and future problems of their respective jurisdictions and the interrelation between the problems of Carmel and the county.

At the conclusion of their remarks, a question and answer period will follow.

The program is one of a series being sponsored by the Billy Burke Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, according to Paul M. Pederson, Grand Knight of the local Chapter. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Casey's 36-week flight course will qualify him as a helicopter or fixed-wing aircraft pilot in Army Aviation.

Three Enlist in Army

Three men from the Carmel area enlisted in the U. S. Army during December. From Carmel were Anthony Klepich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Klepich; and Todd W. Bliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Bliss. From Pebble Beach was Dennis L. Casey, son of Mr. Ralph S. Casey.

Klepich and Bliss entered the Army under the Graduate Specialist Program, guaranteeing training in the field of their choice, and Casey for the warrant officer flight training program.

We move families
...not just furniture

When the idea of moving starts closing in on you, we know how you feel. We know because we've helped so many families feel better about the whole thing.

So when it happens, give us a call ... and cheer up.

We'll ease you over all the worries, and we'll handle your things as if they were our own.

Remember, we move families ... not just furniture.

Let's face it: this winter hasn't been so hot.

That's why your PG&E bill may leave you a little cold.

Your winter PG&E bills are bound to be bigger because they stand for more:

More days and nights with the thermostat turned up. More lights (and burning longer). More hot meals. More TV watching and stereo. More of just about all the wintertime comforts of home. But remember spring is just around the corner. So your bill will be on its way back down.

That should make you feel warm
all over.

Young People's Concert

The grade school children of the area are cordially invited to be the guests of the Junior League at their 15th annual Young People's Concert this Saturday morning, Feb. 15 at Sunset Auditorium.

The first concert will begin at 10 a.m. It is reserved for the children from Carmel and Carmel Valley. A repeat performance at 11:30 a.m. is for the youngsters from the rest of the Peninsula.

Haymo Taeuber will conduct the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra in a program designed to appeal to the younger set. Mr. Taeuber will introduce and describe each selection and make suitable comments so that the children will understand what the composer was trying to do.

The concert will open with von Suppe's "Light Cavalry Overture." Mozart's "Violin Concerto in D major" will follow and will feature Andrew Erlich as guest violinist. Schumann's "Piano Concerto in A minor" with guest soloist Juanita Messerli will be followed by "Roses from the South" by Johann Strauss. The program will close with John Philip Sousa's stirring "Stars and Stripes."

Members of the Junior League will serve as ushers at both concerts. In addition to doing what ushers normally do, the girls of the League will also be available for such duties as the tying of shoelaces, blowing of noses, and the answering of questions.

Andrew Erlich, violinist, and Juanita Messerli, pianist, appear as guest artists. Both are winners of the annual Young Artist Auditions held last November by the Junior League.

During the past fifteen years more than 25,000 students have attended these concerts. For many it was their first exposure to a live performance. Hopefully, the concerts will develop an interest in good music.

The Carmel School District will provide one bus for the Carmel Valley children. Carmel children will not be bussed. Starting point for the Valley bus is uncertain at this time because of the

LWV Monthly Meeting Friday

This month the League of Women Voters' Carmel Valley Unit will discuss the problems of day care and transportation on the Monterey Peninsula.

LWV members and members of the Carmel and Carmel Valley communities are invited to participate in the discussion.

The unit meeting will be held at the Carmel Valley Manor on Friday, Feb. 14 at 9:30 a.m. For further information please call 375-9272.

condition of the road beyond the Farm Center.

It was originally planned to have the bus leave Tularcitos School at 9 a.m. and make pick-ups en route at the regular school bus stops. Pick-up at the Farm Center would be at 9:15 a.m.

This schedule will be followed providing the Valley road is usable for school busses on the 15th. If not, the initial pick-up point will be at the Farm Center at 9:15 a.m. It is estimated that the bus will leave Sunset Center at 11:15 a.m. for the return trip.

Carmel Music Society

Violinist Young Uck Kim will perform on Saturday, Feb. 15 at 8:30 p.m. at Sunset Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Carmel Society.

Kim comes to the Peninsula following a number of appearances throughout the country, including Washington, New York and Los Angeles.

Kim, a native of Korea, gave his first concert when he was only seven years old. Shortly thereafter he won first prize in an important contest with entrants from all of Korea.

In 1961 he was discovered by Rudolf Serkin who was then touring the Orient. Serkin's enthusiasm for the young Kim's rare ability convinced the violin faculty at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, and Kim was offered a scholarship at the Institute.

In 1965 Kim won the coveted Merriweather Post Competition. This led to appearances with the National Symphony Orchestra in Washington and New York.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Fremier

The Enchanted, by Elizabeth Coatsworth was first published in 1951 and it has recently reappeared. It is subtitled "an incredible tale," which describes it perfectly.

David Ross buys a farm at the edge of the Enchanted and a neighbor warns him that he will find himself in the middle of "one of them legends if you don't watch out."

Instead of watching out, he meets the charming, cheerful and warm Perdry and marries Molly Perdry. Dave loves her sweetness and straight-forwardness, but is irritated by her timidity and fear of being alone.

One day he leaves her three chickens to clean and when he returns, Molly and all the Perdry's have disappeared. They return briefly to return Molly, who is no longer enchanted, due to her love for Dave.

It is a charming, gentle tale, which encourages the reader to accept the unbelievable.

Do Not Annoy The Indians, by Betty Baker, is based on an authentic historical situation, with the rules of the Overland Mail as an important part.

When the Butterfield Overland Mail Company started in 1858, Mr. Butterfield issued a list of rules to his employees, which included the following: "Do not annoy the Indians. All employees will be at their posts at all times. Suitable meals must be prepared for passengers."

Thirteen-year-old Jeff Barnes thinks he is not responsible for these rules being carried out, since it is his father who is the station-master.

In spite of the rules, however, it turns out that the first stage will arrive at the Arizona City station before his father can get there.

Three New Evening Classes At MPC

Two ornamental horticulture institutes and a new physical education course for the mature adult have been added to the evening curriculum at Montrey Peninsula College for the spring semester, it was announced today.

Ornamental Horticulture 80B, a six-week institute on container gardening, will open Feb. 13 to meet Thursdays from 7 to 11 p.m. in Room LS-104. Offering one college unit, the class will be instructed by Richard G. Murray of Richard G. Murray Associates, Landscape Architecture, Carmel.

Ornamental Horticulture 80A, a six-week institute on annuals and perennials, will begin Feb. 18, to meet Tuesdays from 7 to 11 p.m. in Room LS-104. This course also offers one unit of college credit.

Physical Education 104, individual Development for the Mature Adult, will begin Wednesday, Feb. 19 in the MPC gymnasium combative room, to meet Wednesday evenings, 7 to 9 p.m., thereafter. Limited to 40 males aged 25 to 60 who have medical approval for a "medium amount of physical exercise," the course is designed to develop and improve the physical condition of the mature adult.

Registration for the ornamental horticulture courses may be accomplished in the administration building or at the first meeting. Registrants for the physical education class must sign up with the instructor at the first meeting.

fore his father will. Therefore, it is up to Jeff, his bossy older sister and his stubborn younger brother to live up to the rules.

It is one hilarious incident after another, until the climax, which involves a swap: the loan of Little White Man Dream (Benjie holding his breath) for a special ceremony in exchange for the return of the stagecoach which one of the friendly Indians has taken. It is fast moving and lots of fun.

A biography of Mark Twain, titled Spunkwater, Spunkwater (named from Tom and Huck's incantation to ward off warts), by James Playsted Wood, is an excellent portrayal of the man. It does not try to whitewash his faults, but tells of his life and experiences, while relating them to his writings.

One paragraph which gives a glimpse of his home-life is as follows: "Sometimes the children found their father (Mark Twain) more entertaining than he intended. His rages were spectacular. Easily provoked, he flew into magnificent tantrums. Sometimes the unexpected reactions when his rampant sense of humor was stirred were as wildly exciting as his bursts of temper. His flippant irreverence sometimes caught his wife midway between horrified shock and unavoidable amusement."

Two books which recently were added to the collection will be helpful to the teacher, the parent planning a party for youngsters, and anyone else who needs to keep children busy. 101 Best Games For Girls and 101 Action Games For Boys are both by Lillian and Godfrey Frankel.

The chapters in the book of games for the girls are divided into the following categories: Icebreakers, Action Games, Singing and Dramatic Games, Quiet Games, and Easy Games. There is also an index which lists the games by the name which they are best known.

I can't describe the book of games for boys in such detail, as it is presently checked out, but they are each helpful books to know.

Call Us Americans, is a collection of experiences in the form of short stories, some which are first-hand recollections, and some fictional, all dealing with the subject of coming to America from another land. Leo Rosten starts the book off with his "Mr. K*A*P*L*A*N the Magnificent," followed by "The Decline and Fall of Augie Sheean," by Joe Coogan.

Booth Tarkington, MacKinlay Kantor, Lin Yutang, Edna Ferber and others contribute to this excellent cross-section of experiences.

Tax Deduction for Flood Damage OK

Property losses suffered by individuals in 1969 may be claimed as deductions on their 1968 California personal income tax if the damage occurred in a federally-designated disaster area, which Monterey was declared on Feb. 5.

Martin Huff, executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board, said a provision of the law, enacted after a devastating tidal wave struck northern California in 1964, allows property owners to claim flooding and rain-storm losses without waiting for the 1969 filing season.

The California law is similar to a Federal statute

Letter To Editor

Editor:

I notice that the Carmel City Council has passed an ordinance making it illegal to utter or use certain words. Will you kindly send me a list of these words. Enclosed is a stamped self-addressed envelope for this purpose. Unless one is aware of what one can't say, one might land in the pokey without knowing why. Also I have quite a few friends who plan to visit us from other parts of the country this spring and summer, and it would be very embarrassing if the same happened to them, so I feel they should be forewarned. In this case, they might decide not to come.

Perhaps the Council has never heard that old saying: "Sticks and stones can break my bones but names will never hurt me." Also I can't imagine how words can breach the peace. It is actions which do this. Words in themselves can do no harm.

Very truly yours,

Helen Lambert

(Mrs. John E. Lambert)

(Editor's Comment — The Pine Cone carries on page 20 the full text of the ordinance prohibiting profane language.

Several stories have appeared in the local press treating the ordinance with some levity, which the City Council chose to ignore.

We call attention to the last section of the law that specifically says the profane or vulgar language must have a tendency to incite or create a breach of the peace.

Mrs. Lambert can't imagine how words can breach the peace.

We remind Mrs. Lambert that words lead to the action, and that demonstrations by dissident elements are inflamed by words, and that the use of obscenities is one of the factors that lead to subsequent violent action.

Police armed with this ordinance have a weapon that enables them to take early action against instigators who are attempting to move a group.

The minute profanity or any obscenity is used in the attempt, the police are empowered to make arrests, thus perhaps averting impending violence.

We are certain, Mrs. Lambert, that Carmel police are not going to arrest two or three people standing on a corner whose normal conversation is sprinkled with a cuss word here and there.

Unless, of course, the cuss words lead to blows and violence, in which case all of them may land in the clink.

As for furnishing you with a list of banned words, the Dictionary of American Slang has them all, and we couldn't send such a list through the U. S. Mail.

and sets up the following conditions:

—The damage must have been sustained prior to April 15, 1969.

—The loss must be in a disaster area as proclaimed by Presidential proclamation.

—The accelerated deduction provision applies to individuals and not to corporations.

Corporations may claim deductible losses in filing their returns for 1969. Individuals also have the option of claiming their losses at the end of the tax year, Huff said.

Rotary Ladies' Day

Ladies' Day at Carmel Rotary yesterday brought together Oliver White of Carmel Home Furnishings and Mrs. Joe Foltz of the Finishing Touch, also in Carmel, who told the ladies "How Clients and Decorators Work Together."

Both White and Mrs. Foltz are interior decorators and thus were well qualified to tell the ladies how cooperation makes for satisfying home decoration.

Mrs. Donald T. Krotz of Orinda, member of the State Board of Education will speak next Wednesday on the State School System.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 187 C.S.
AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING SUBDIVISION REGULATIONS BY REGULATING THE DESIGN, IMPROVEMENT AND SURVEY DATA OF SUBDIVISIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER DIVISIONS OF LAND AND THE FORM AND CONTENT OF TENTATIVE AND FINAL MAPS THEREOF; PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION HEREOF; AND DESIGNATING AN ADVISORY AGENCY; SAID ORDINANCE BEING ADOPTED PURSUANT TO THE SUBDIVISION MAP ACT AS AMENDED, AND TO THE GENERAL POWERS OF THE CITY OF CARMEL.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. That certain document entitled "An Ordinance Adopting Subdivision Regulations By Regulating The Design, Improvement And Survey Data Of Subdivisions And Certain Other Divisions Of Land And The Form And Content Of Tentative And Final Maps Thereof; Providing Penalties For The Violation Hereof; And Designating An Advisory Agency; Said Ordinance Being Adopted Pursuant To The Subdivision Map Act As Amended, And To The General Powers Of The City Of Carmel" is hereby adopted in accordance with the State law in such matters.

Section 2. That all ordinances, codes, or parts thereof in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 3. Savings Provisions. The repealing provisions of this ordinance or of said Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall not affect or impair any act done or right vested or approved or any proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced in any cause before such repeal shall take effect; but every such act done, or right vested or accrued, had or commenced shall remain in full force and effect to all intents and purposes as if such ordinance, or part thereof, so repealed had remained in force. No offense committed and no liability, penalty or forfeiture, either civilly or criminally incurred prior to the time when any such ordinance or part thereof shall be repealed or altered by said Code shall be discharged or effected by such repeal or alteration; but prosecutions and suits for such offenses, liabilities, penalties or forfeitures shall be instituted and proceeded with in all respects as if such prior ordinance or part thereof had not been repealed or altered.

Section 4. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after its final passage and adoption.

Certification of City Clerk

I, HUGH BAYLESS, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 187 C.S., which was given its First Reading at a Regular Meeting of said City Council on the 8th day of January, 1969, and finally adopted at a Regular Meeting of the said Council on the 5th day of February, 1969.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 7th day of February, 1969.

HUGH BAYLESS,
City Clerk

somme with seasonings. Cook very gently until rice is tender but firm. Add oysters for 5 minutes.

Serve from heated tureen or chafing dish at the table. Actually this is a way to produce a new-day Orleans type of Madri Gras "souper". Any of the current heat-retaining electric gadgets will keep this soul-warming offering "simmering gently" until dawn. But there is always charcoal!

From Rio de Janeiro, where Carnival is really terrific, these meat balls, kept going over one of the contraptions we've just described, couldn't hit the spot more potently:

Almondagas, Rio

One lb. lean ground beef; 1/4 lb. chopped, smoked tongue; 1 grated onion; 2 T. minced parsley; salt and pepper; 1 cup stale bread, covered with enough milk to soften; 1 egg yolk; flour; 1 beaten egg; oil for frying.

Mix beef with next 6 items. Shape into rounds the size of an egg. Roll each in flour, then into beaten egg. Fry in oil. Drain on absorbent paper and serve with various sauces.

Almondagas, very much in demand in Brazil, were inherited from Portuguese colonizers. As early as 1692!

Tampa's Gasparilla Invasion, unlike other pre-Lenten celebrations, has no religious significance. It is purely a community festival, observing a period in the city's history. But it falls at this time we're describing. And they feast and do not fast down there!

During Gasparilla Week tourists line up for blocks to receive cups of savory garbanzo soup ladled by white-aproned chefs from steaming cauldrons. The soup is served gratis as a gesture of Latin hospitality in Ybor City, the only Spanish city-with-in an American State. Yborites vow that their restaurants serve the most authentic Spanish food in the U.S.A. Could we say the same even here?

Ybor City Garbanzo Soup

One lb. garbanzo beans (chic peas); 1 T. salt; 1 beef and 1 ham bone, each; 2 qts. water; 1/4 lb. bacon; pinch of paprika; 1 onion; butter; 1 lb. potatoes; pinch of saffron; salt to taste; 2 chorizos (Spanish sausages).

Soak garbanzos overnight with 1 T. salt in enough water to cover beans. When ready to cook, drain water from beans, add them to beef and ham bones in 2 qts. water. Cook gently 45 minutes. Fry the cut up bacon with paprika and onion in butter (or lard, as the Latins do). Add to beans, with the quartered, peeled potatoes, saffron and salt to taste. When potatoes are done, remove soup from stove and add chorizos, cut into thin slices. And serve HOT.

This amount is only supposed to serve SIX. But it is so much in demand with a waiting crowd, especially free-loading tourists, that the Columbia Restaurant in Tampa prepares it in vats! Let's have some just for two!

CAMERA CLUB SLIDES

The Padre Trails Camera Club will meet in Brey Hall, Carmel High School, Thursday, Feb. 20 at 8 p.m.

One hundred slides, all Ansco Film winners, will be featured, showing many different types of subject.

Members should bring pictorial slides for the club contest for the evening. Visitors are welcome.

GREAT STUFF — I'm sorry Valentine's Day comes only once a year if this is a sample of how it's celebrated. Beats any puppy food I ever tasted. This picture was taken when I was member of the SPCA bunch, but it won't do you any good to call them at 373-2631 to claim me. I am now in residence at the home of the editor of this paper, and while I as yet haven't managed to get my teeth into anything as delectable as this Valentine candy, the food is good and regular and I have a 20 pound feline named Socrates to protect me. However, some of my friends may still be at the SPCA, and they are a great gang. If you're looking for something to love, give them a ring, or visit the shelter on the Salinas-Monterey Highway.

Yoga Classes Starting at Sunset

Carmel High News

By Terri Jaseau

All the varsity basketball players are going to be raffled off in the Carmel High Gym in a rally on Feb. 14. Tickets are being sold for 15c during the week Feb. 10-13. The lucky girls who win get to have a basketball player for a slave from 10:30 a.m. to midnight on Valentine's Day.

The Dance and Light Show planned for Feb. 11 was rescheduled to Saturday Feb. 15 due to the King City basketball game. The two bands featured will be the Lemon Jade and the Blue Grass. The dance will be held in the gym from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m.

The Carmel Padres are still Number One in basketball and are still running undefeated in MTAL after their 85-54 victory over San Lorenzo Valley Cougars. The JV's won with 79-39 and the freshman score was 50-42, favor of SLV.

Czech Speaker At Woman's Club

Jan Kucera, a Czechoslovakian minister forbidden by the communists, in 1959, to preach in Czechoslovakia, will speak on Communism and Freedom at the Carmel Woman's Club Feb. 17 at 2 p.m.

Mr. Kucera arrived on the Peninsula in December, having obtained his passport before the Russian invasion. He is working with youth groups and acts as an associate pastor in this area. His wife and two married children remain in Czechoslovakia, and Mr. Kucera intends to return to his country after a year in the United States.

"The worst enemy of communism is religion," says Mr. Kucera. After being relieved of his ministerial position he was put on a work gang in Bohemia, and while there was able to influence the religious beliefs of some Richard Hittleman, author, lecturer and instructor of the KQED-TV Channel 9 television programs "Yoga for Health," now in their eighth year.

Classes will be held on Tuesdays at 10:15 a.m., 1:15 p.m. and 8 p.m., on Thursdays at 10:15 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. and on Saturdays at 11 a.m., a family class.

A special course in Yoga Philosophy and Meditation will be presented on Thursdays at 8 p.m.

Bantam Books have just published a paperback by Richard Hittleman called "Guide to Yoga Meditation" containing the exercises illustrated by Al Weber, well known local photographer.

Hittleman has lived in Carmel for several years. He is originally from New York City where he attended Columbia University.

Peter Medina, well known here for his appearance in "Fantasticks" at the Studio Theater when he was studying Russian at the Defense Language Institute, will assist Hittleman in leading the classes.

"The starting time is now," said Hittleman, "for older as well as younger people" to begin practices which will give a "sense of inward peace."

The old cafeteria downstairs at Sunset Center is being redecorated and made ready for the classes.

of his fellow workers by asking simple questions.

This is not Mr. Kucera's first visit to the United States; he came as a young man to the Czech Brethren (Reformed) Church, and studied at the Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He has studied at the London school of economics.

The president of the club, Miss Ianthe Densmore, will preside at the meeting. Mrs. A. C. Bryans, chairman of the book section will introduce the speaker. Greeting members and friends at the door will be Mrs. E. G. Friez and Mrs. J. H. Woolsey. Pouring tea after the lecture will be Mary Olive Davey, Mrs. C. U. Fonteneau, Mrs. M. S. Hughes, and Mrs. H. J. Stamm.

Mrs. Gladys L. Willey will lead the flag salute.

'Tosca' Next Opera Live from Met

Giacomo Puccini's dramatic "Tosca" will be the eleventh opera to be broadcast this season over the Texaco-Metropolitan Opera Radio Network when it is given on Saturday, Feb. 15. The broadcast will begin at 11:00 a.m., over KSCO 1080 kc and KSCO-FM at 99.1 mc.

Singing principal roles will be soprano Birgit Nilsson as Tosca; tenor Franco Corelli as Cavaradossi; baritone William Dooley as the Baron Scarpia; and bass Paul Plishka as the Sacristan. George Schick will conduct.

During the first intermission "Opera News on the Air," the noted music critic and author, William Weaver, makes a visit to Lucca, Italy to interview Herbert Handt, an American singer who lives in this ancestral hometown of the musical Puccini family. Mr. Handt will recount many interesting stories — with musical illustrations — about the five generations of Puccinis and their music.

Facing Quizmaster Edward Downes on Texaco's Opera Quiz will be Max De Schauensee, music critic of the Philadelphia "Evening Bulletin"; H. C. Robbins Landon, currently a guest professor at the City University of New York and an authority on the symphonies of Haydn; Terry McEwen, manager of the classical division of London Records; and the noted TV and movie actor, Tony Randall.

"Tosca" was first performed in Rome on Jan. 14, 1900. It was an instant success. Six months later it was given in England, and the following season the work had its Metropolitan Opera premiere.

After reading Sardou's play "Tosca," Puccini was anxious to turn it into an opera and asked his music publishers to secure the rights to it. His attention was drawn to other projects, however, and Puccini gave no more thought to an opera "Tosca."

Another composer, meanwhile, began his own operatic version of "Tosca," even going so far as to having a libretto prepared by Luigi Illica. When Puccini heard of this, he insisted that his publisher get the work back for him. The other composer finally reluctantly relinquished his rights to the story, and soon Puccini was busy composing the score of "Tosca" we know today.

Carmel Jeweler is Master Watchmaker

You don't normally associate bachelor and master degrees with a craft, but Don Crosby, owner of Crosby's Plaza Jewelers holds a master degree in, of all things, watchmaking.

Crosby, who opened his shop in the Carmel Plaza nine years ago, has been interested in jewelry from childhood.

His uncle owned a jewelry store in the Midwest, and Crosby used to tinker with the merchandise and watches when he visited the shop.

A native of Oregon, Crosby has lived in Carmel for the past 14 years and has been a jeweler for the past 20.

He attended Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls, where he majored in watchmaking and was awarded that masters degree in the difficult craft.

The Crosbys enjoy the relaxed and friendly atmosphere of Carmel, and he and his wife, Dorothy, consider it the ideal place to raise their four children, Elaine, 14, Diane, 9, Janet 7 and Walter 2.

Feb. 9 through 15 is National Beauty Salon Week.

Sponsored by the 70,000 members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, this is the 19th annual observance dedicated to the beauty of women across the states.

"We have been dedicating National Beauty Salon Week to more beautiful women for the past 19 years, because we believe in maintaining and enhancing our country's most precious asset, the beauty of American women," said Alfred Berger, president of the professional association.

"Not only the beauty profession, but all can understand and join in this honor to the beauty of our women, declared Evelyn Bunge, past president of the National Professional Association and director for the National Beauty Salon Week program.

"Listen to the Stream"

That's the invitation written over the door of a little house by a mountain stream in a fern-filled redwood canyon some 14 miles South of Carmel. The cottage is built of redwood with doors and windows which open wide to the music of the creek, on all-year background, wild and wonderful in the spring, quiet and gentle through the summer. The house is tiny, about 660 square feet, with division into three rooms and a bath. Rustic inside and out, redwood shake roof, Swedish fireplace, and all wrapped round by forest primeval. The price is $22,500 and a fair amount of cash is required.

And a Note About That House With the Stream in the Living Room

No, no, no! It isn't flooded! The delightful brook is built in, intentional, PLANNED! See, there's this waterfall (yes, it was intended, too) which is the first thing you see as you walk down the fascinating hallway to the living areas with their circular stone walls, incense cedar paneling, fabulous view of the mountains through floor-to-ceiling glass — and all the things we said in the other ads directed, if you will recall, "to an individualist with flair and imagination." We're still looking for that person for this unusual home in Carmel Valley. The price is $37,500.

TRANSFORMATION — Richard Burton as Doctor Faustus discovers he no longer is an aging scholar but a handsome, vigorous youth in this scene from the Columbia Pictures release in Technicolor. He has sold his soul to the devil whose agent, played by Andrea Tauer, left, studies Faustus' signature to the contract. Elizabeth Taylor as Helen of Troy stars with Burton in the film, which introduces the Oxford University Dramatic Society. "Doctor Faustus" is being presented by the Carmel Museum of Art, at the Carmel Village Theater, Feb. 19 and 20 at 2:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased now at the Carmel Museum of Art, Dolores and 7th, Tuesdays through Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Only tickets purchased at the Museum benefit the Museum.

Citizens Group To Meet Today

As anger aroused by last week's City Council action on Edgemere Cottages continues to express itself in the community, the board of directors of the Carmel Citizen's Committee scheduled a meeting to be held late this afternoon.

Speaking of the board meeting, Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN, Ret.), head of the citizen group, said "The question of motels in residential areas will be considered and a course of action will be determined."

The Citizens' Committee, which had long expressed its opposition to the granting of the Edgemere permit, took a vote at its annual meeting last month to make its stand official. Its resolution, directed to the City Council, said in part:

"The present motel ordinance appears to be inadequate in its present form . . .

"Be it resolved, therefore, that no action whatsoever be taken by the City of Carmel on any request for amendment of use permits issued under the motel ordinance, until the ordinance is amended to prohibit expansion; further, that such action is long overdue and should have immediate attention by Carmel city officials."

Middle School To Lose 5th Grades

grades be moved, said that he did not see how they could hope to pass a bond issue in the face of empty classrooms at the elementary level. Opinion was divided among administrators, teachers, parents and children whether fifth grade children were mature enough to leave their neighborhood schools, he pointed out.

Later in the meeting discussion centered around ways and means of improving art and music instruction in the lower grades, one through five.

Mrs. John Morrice criticized the art and music instruction and program at the lower grade levels saying this district was far behind Los Angeles in this respect.

Taylor said he had been doing much research on population expectations. The birth rate has dropped, he said, and the cost of homes in the area is so high that only long established families can afford to live here.

In other board action, Mrs. Ehtelyne Eikenberry, tenure teacher on leave of absence, was appointed as a midyear replacement for Miss Eleanor Crouch who is working at the high school.

The new primary wing at Tularcitos will be ready for occupancy on Monday, March 3. Inspection was set for Feb. 20, at 10 a.m.

Valley school bus service resumed this morning via Miramonte road following the storm damage last week to Carmel Valley Road.

THE BLOTTER

by c.r. bee

(This week the Pine Cone inaugurates a column taken from the daily blotter of the Carmel Police Department.

Next week the assistance calls of the Fire Department and Ambulance Service will be included.

The primary emphasis of this column will be on the services to the community performed by these three factions of city government.

I will occasionally furnish editorial comment where I may think it is needed, for which I accept full responsibility, but will furiously resist physical violence against my person in case the comment displeases any reader or readers.

Be forewarned—I will follow no particular format, as is my unalienable prerogative as a by-lined columnist.

The column will reflect the entire week of police work performed by Chief Clyde Klamann's minions, and separate stories to appear on the news pages will be written about the more important events.

Oh yes, I'll be running mug shots (kind of reversing the usual procedure) of the members of the Police and Fire Departments along with a short biographical sketch of each individual as part of the column.)

Police work is largely a matter of routine—shaking the doors of downtown merchants' establishments at night, serving subpoenas, tagging vehicles blocking driveways, issuing traffic citations, finding lost animals and maintaining a lost and found department at the police station.

The Carmel Police had their share of such routine matters during the week, plus on Friday, Feb. 9:

Arrested Patricia Ann Krieger De Martini, 34, of Daly City, for being drunk in a public place.

Arrested Lynn Cunningham, 19, of Los Angeles when she was found asleep in some bushes off Ocean Avenue. She had what was apparently a marijuana cigarette in her pocket, and was almost incoherent in the police station. She was booked into the Monterey County Hospital.

On Saturday, Feb. 8, two 11-year-old girls left a note that they were running away. They took their dog on a leash. Police searched for them, but they returned voluntarily in the afternoon.

At 9:20 p.m., an anonymous phone call reported a bomb in Chricton House Restaurant. Lt. Bob Fisher and Officers Morris Singletary and Frank Corr, along with the Fire Department, responded, cleared the restaurant and searched the building, but no bomb was found.

On the Monday blotter, Melvin Reese picked up an elderly lady and noticed she was wearing a hospital gown and had a medical wrist tag. She was Gladys Ferrell, a patient in the Carmel Convalescent Hospital, and had fallen on the hospital grounds and cut her head. She was taken to Community Hospital by Red Cross Ambulance.

On Tuesday, Feb. 11, Bob McCleary of Soledad asked the Carmel Police to help him find his car. He mislaid it somewhere in Carmel and couldn't remember where. No report yet on whether the car has been found.

A minor from Monterey was arrested for sitting on the back of a bench in Diefendorf Park.

Think that's silly? Not really. Sitting on the back of a public bench does nothing but dirty up the bench for someone who wants to sit on it properly.

This young lad was a constant offender, sitting on the back of a bench until a patrol car came by, climbing back up when it had gone. Today, a Carmel citizen turned him in. An unheralded public service the Carmel Police perform is fingerprinting. Francis Louise Hall has just been hired as a teacher's aide by the Carmel School System and the law requires fingerprints of all public employees. The police accommodate by employing their expert technique.

Cole Weston, manager of Sunset Center reported a burglary attempt on the kitchen door on the east side of the center. Not successful.

At 2:40 a.m. on Feb. 11, Tom Jeavons came to the station. He was despondent and requested the use of the station phone. Jeavons called All Saints' Church and talked to the minister until 3:07 a.m., when the Reverend Partridge arrived from the Church, and the two talked in the interrogation room until 5:15, when they left together.

'Schooling for What?' Parker Topic

A teacher should be a "learning consultant" when a child needs help, not a "blackboard drone and paper-correcting slave," said Dr. Don H. Parker of Big Sur in his address before the area California Teachers Association at Holiday Inn Saturday morning.

Dr. Parker, inventor of the widely used Science Research Associates reading series, said there should be a structure of balanced schooling between training and education.

"Creativity is the essence of education," he said, "and a child should be allowed to make his own discoveries. Only thus can a cycle of motivation be set in motion."

By the use of his tape recorded Synchron teach system, the teacher would be freed to give individual help when needed, he said. Non-grading, flexible scheduling concepts would be enhanced. Student absences and transfers could easily be made up.

Dr. Parker recounted a few of his interviews, many of them frightening, with students and people in all walks of life, on which his most recent book "Schooling For What?" is based.
